All, here are the consolidated edits... let me know if there are any issues. I will note that I am leaning to the first sentence in that if we feel we overreached, we should state that we overreached. Curt.

Hi Ann,

Curt is on travel today, Mark at training, and I am out office on leave (moving stuff). Please send comments to Curt, myself, Patricia, and Mark Pelz. One of us will try to consolidate the comments to get to Mary on Monday. Thanks

Thank you Gary, Gerry, Colin and Angela for getting this memo done so quickly.

Managers and Solicitors: Because of the settlement date for the listing document (September 30), it is critical that we wrap up this memo as soon as possible. Could you please provide your input to me and Angela by noon on Monday September 16. Angela and I will coordinate these edits with the rest of the "memo team" and shepherd the final memo though signatures.

Thanks again for everyone's attention to this matter.

Dear managers and solicitors,

Per your request during yesterday's storm-petrel discussions, attached is a draft memo for your review and use. This version incorporates comments by Gerry McChesney, Colin Grant, and Mary Grim on an earlier draft, and later discussions by Colin, Gerry and I to reconcile comments. We have highlighted one sentence in the "Language differences" section, where we had 2 alternative versions of a sentence, and decided to defer to managers and solicitors on the appropriate language.

Many thanks to Colin and Gerry for all their help with this, and to Mary for providing helpful comments. Gerry, Colin and I do not plan to be in tomorrow (Friday), but back Monday. Angela Picco said that Mary Grim will be available tomorrow if needed.
