Nicole,

Charlie asked me to send this draft comment letter to you for editing. Before getting started be sure to pull out a brand new red pen, so you do not run out of ink half-way through :)

We look forward to working with you to turn this draft into a document fit for a queen (or at least the RD).

Thanks for your help,
Jennifer

Hi Jennifer, I was on leave until today. It seems like my out-of-office was not working.

I'm still going through the work requests. I took a brief look at your letter. It's good, there's just a lot there. If you could give me a timeline, it would help me prioritize this with my other projects.

And I've got lots of red pens. :)

Thank you.

Hi Jennifer, I know this has taken a while, so I don't know if you've already moved on, but here is the comment letter with a few changes and questions. Let me know if there is anything else I can do to it or something else; I am happy to help.

Thank you, I hope you're getting some sunshine up there today. We are here.

Nicole
