Hi Gerry and Russ,

I hope you are doing well. I just wanted to remind you that the alternatives selection process draft is nearly ready for your review. It is currently circulating throughout IC for an internal review, and I am planning on revising it and sending it to you for review the week of November 21 or the week of November 28. I wanted to get some feedback from you as to your availability over that timeframe to dedicate to reviewing both the matrices and the written summary. I am planning on giving you 3 weeks for review and hope to have a final draft ready for circulation to our partners by the end of the year (before the holidays). Thanks and have a great weekend.

Gabrielle
